

RESOLUTION NO. 1236

IN SUPPORT OF YAVAPAI COUNTY VOLUNTEERS FOR THE YAVAPAI COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

WHEREAS, the Yavapai County Board of Supervisors, the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office and the Yavapai County Sheriff realize the irreplaceable importance of volunteer assistance from members of the community, and,

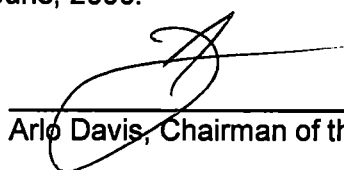

WHEREAS, Volunteers of the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office represent over 1,075 volunteers throughout the County and include volunteer groups such as the Volunteers in Protection, Sheriff's Reserve Deputies, Sheriff's Air Group, Jail Ministry, Detention Volunteers and Search and Rescue volunteers including 14 different Sheriff's Posses, and,

WHEREAS, it is essential that volunteer members of these organizations are properly trained and maintain a high level of skills, talents and attributes necessary to meet the standards of the group in which they serve, and,

WHEREAS, the Volunteers of the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office have donated over 55,000 staffing hours or the equivalent of $1,194,841.75 assisting the operation of the Sheriff's Office during 1999, and,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Yavapai County Board of Supervisors, the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office and the Yavapai County Sheriff adopt this resolution acknowledging appreciation and recognition of the time, talents and efforts of the Volunteers of the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office for their contributions to the agency during 1999.

Approved and Dated this 5th day of June, 2000.

Arlo Davis, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors
