

RESOLUTION NO. 1337

A RESOLUTION OF THE YAVAPAI COUNTY
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
PROCLAIMING NATIONAL COUNTY GOVERNMENT WEEK
APRIL 7 – 13, 2002

WHEREAS, the County Supervisors Association of Arizona believes counties secure America. The terror attacks on September 11 spotlighted the work county officials do 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year; and

WHEREAS, counties are the first to respond to emergency situations and are primarily responsible for planning for disasters; and

WHEREAS, county officials keep citizens protected and communities thriving. Due to the planning, cooperation and dedication of counties across America, emergency response professionals from all across the nation are able to mobilize and respond quickly and effectively; and

WHEREAS, counties continue to deal with the after affects of September 11 and the ensuing public health threats; and

WHEREAS, there are 3,066 counties in the United States, collectively responsible for the well being of more than 230 million residents; and

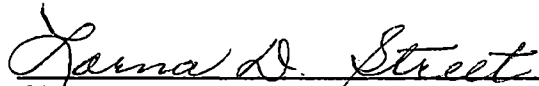

WHEREAS, counties have a long history of serving and providing for the American people. In this new and trying time, counties will continue to safeguard our way of life, remaining vigilant protectors of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, county governments are the citizen's local government voice, providing solutions that bring communities together; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the leadership, innovation and valuable service provided by our nation's counties,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Yavapai County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims April 7 – 13, 2002, as National County Government Week.

APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 1st day of April, 2002.

Chairman, Board of Supervisors

ATTEST:

Clerk, Board of Supervisors
