The Salvation Army Prescott will be initiating Operation Food Box during this time of uncertainty in the community to provide basic food items to those facing food insecurity who may not have the means to get food due to the COVID-19 situation. The Salvation Army can arrange for a food box to be dropped at an individual's door, reducing the amount of face-to-face exposure. Apply for Operation Food Box assistance by calling The Salvation Army at 928-778-0150 or visiting The Salvation Army Prescott Corps Community Center, 237 S. Montezuma St. Assistance is limited and subject to availability. For more information, visit Prescott.SalvationArmy.org.
