Governor Ducey's "Return Stronger" Executive Order extends the Stay Home, Stay Healthy, Stay Connected to 5/15 - The coronavirus is different from anything else this country or this world has dealt with. The coronavirus is still out there and reopening the economy, however right or wrong that decision may be, means a heightened likelihood that it negatively affects us. What that means for the citizens of these counties, this state and this country is that we must take seriously our responsibility as American citizens. Whatever your feelings on the reopening of the economy, it is important to live your life as responsibly as you can. Continue to respect social distancing guidelines, continue to follow CDC guidance on masks and gloves, stay home as much as possible and avoid large gatherings. Respect yourselves and others and we can get through this.
